Subject: RE: Highfields v. SCOR

Ken,

Highfields does not suffer any prejudice by SCOR having filed the documents at issue (with Bates Numbers HIGH 010118-119, 010127-29 and 010115-117) under seal as "Confidential" documents because "Highly Confidential" documents would have been filed under seal in the exact same manner. As a technical matter, Highfields has not yet redesignated the documents at issue in the manner required under Paragraph 7 of the Stipulation and Protective Order.

Given Highfields' desire to change the confidentiality designation of the documents, for the time being SCOR will treat the documents at issue as "Highly Confidential," if Highfields complies with its obligation to provide replacement pages for the documents that it seeks to redesignate; notwithstanding that SCOR reserves all rights to object to any confidentiality designation that Highfields has made, or any change in confidentiality designation that Highfields might wish or seek to make, regarding, or any attempt by Highfields to seek return of, the documents at issue.

Regards,
Giselle.

Giselle: Please be advised that pursuant to paragraph 7 of the Confidentiality Stipulation and Order entered into by the parties in this matter, documents with Bates Numbers HIGH 010118-119, 010127-29 and 010115-117 should be designated as "Highly Confidential" and not "Confidential."

As Lisa Wood mentioned to you today, Highfields does not consent to your filing these documents with the Court without a Highly Confidential designation. Because the deadline for SCOR to respond to Highfields' motion is not until tomorrow, we do not see why SCOR needs to rush to file these documents before they are so designated.

The foregoing is without prejudice to Highfields' right to insist upon return of these documents.

Regards,

Ken Leonetti
